PROFILE

Full-stack developer and computer science teacher with 17+ years in secondary education and a Professional Master's degree in Web Development (Bac+6). I design and ship web and mobile products with Next.js, React Native and Supabase, and I am currently building École Attendance, a school attendance SaaS. I am seeking remote and freelance projects, while growing toward DevOps, cloud and AI engineering.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Frontend	HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript (ES6+), React.js, Next.js, Tailwind CSS, responsive design
Mobile	React Native, Expo
Backend & data	Supabase (PostgreSQL), Firebase / Firestore, REST APIs, authentication & authorization
Tools & deployment	Git, GitHub, Vercel
Currently learning	Linux, DevOps & CI/CD, cloud computing, AI engineering

PROJECTS

École Attendance – School attendance SaaS · In development · ecole-attendance.vercel.app

- Web admin interface plus a teacher mobile app for student and classroom management and daily attendance recording.
- Absence justification, re-entry authorizations, entry permits, disciplinary records, role-based access and statistics.
- Automated PDF reports (now on Supabase; Firebase in the legacy version).

Stack : Next.js, React Native, Expo, Supabase, Vercel

Quiz Game – Arabic educational mobile game · Concept

- Competitive trivia where players answer questions, earn points and compete on behalf of their Tunisian governorate.
- Automatic scoring, governorate leaderboard and a 500-question Arabic question bank.

Stack : React Native, Expo, Supabase

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Computer Science Teacher – Secondary Education, Tunisia September 2008 – Present

- Teach programming, algorithmic thinking and computer science fundamentals to secondary-school students for 17+ years.
- Design practical exercises and projects that turn abstract concepts into hands-on digital skills.
- Introduce students to software development and office productivity tools.
- Alongside teaching, build real-world software (web, mobile, SaaS) applying technology to school-management needs.
